8:30 a.m. departure of the hydrofoil from Trieste – Molo IV. 9:10 a.m. arrival in Piran. Meet with the guide and departure with a minivan to discover Slovenian Istria. Stop in Koper, Slovenia's main port, for a stroll through the historic centre where a maze of narrow streets leads to the main square dominated by the Cathedral of the Assumption, one of the largest cathedrals in Slovenia. Next to it stands the bell tower, which houses a bell dating back to 1333 – the oldest still-functioning bell in Slovenia. The trip continues to the nearby village of Marezige, with a stop at the Wine Fountain – a one-of-a-kind attraction where you can taste local wines and Istrian specialties such as their typical ham, salami, bacon, cheese and olives. You can take a photo next to the world's largest wooden wine glasses and buy wines and typical products at the nearby shop. In the afternoon, the tour continues to Piran, known for its Venetian architecture, St. George's Cathedral, its long pier and Tartini Square with Tartini's House, the birthplace of the famous violinist Giuseppe Tartini. 7:40 p.m. departure of the hydrofoil from Piran to Trieste. 8:20 p.m. arrival in Trieste – Molo IV.

THE PRICE INCLUDES: round-trip hydrofoil ticket Trieste-Piran; full-day guided tour, tasting of 3 types of wine with a platter of local traditional products at the Wine Fountain (gift: glass and glass holder). THE PRICE DOES NOT INCLUDE: beverages not mentioned; entrance fees; tips; personal expenses and whatever not specified under "The price includes". DOCUMENTS: valid passport or identity card. Please note: the order of the visits may be subject to change due to unforeseen circumstances
